

Driving Directions: Salt Creek is a long way from anywhere, but it is right on a paved road. From Smoot, take highway 89 about 14 miles south to where Packstring Creek enters the stream. The instream flow segment extends downstream from this point another 2 miles to the national forest boundary and then another 2.5 miles or so through state property. There are several designated places to pull off the highway to reach the stream.

Legend

-  WGFD Aquatic Regions
-  Access Roads
-  Other Roads
-  Perennial Stream
-  Instream Flow Filing
-  5th Level HUCs
-  Thomas Fork River Watershed